

A Professional
Corporation

DIANA I. SORRENTINI-VELEZ, Esquire

DIANA I. SORRENTINI-VELEZ is a graduate of New England School of Law (cum laude) and the University of Massachusetts at Amherst (cum laude), where she received accolades and scholarships in recognition of her educational and extracurricular merits. From 1996-1999 she was awarded top student honors from the Conference for the Continued Education of Black and Other Minority Students (CCEBMS). Diana was also the recipient of the Charles Hamilton Houston full tuition scholarship to prospective African-American, Hispanic, Asian and Native American incoming law students. Diana was selected as a 2008 Business West “Forty Under 40.”

Diana brings to Cooley Shrair experience in the areas of domestic relations and civil litigation. She is admitted to the State of Connecticut Bar, the Commonwealth of Massachusetts Bar, and the Federal District Court of Massachusetts. Most recently, she worked for a small law firm in Westfield gathering a wide-range of legal expertise, including divorce, criminal defense, real estate and general civil litigation. She has a working knowledge of Spanish.

Diana is a member of the Massachusetts Bar Association and the Hampden County Bar Association. She has worked as a law clerk to the Justices of the Superior Court of Massachusetts, has completed Family Law Mediation training and is a member of the Massachusetts Council on Family Mediation.

Diana is a member of the Board of Directors for the Gray House and serves as adjunct faculty at the College of Our Lady of the Elms.

PRACTICE AREAS: Domestic Relations; Mediation; Civil Litigation and Special Education Law.